Rev. Ho Kee Chung writes...

AN AWAKENED DISCIPLING CHURCH

"Then Jesus came to them and said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.'" Matthew 28:18-20

After spending the past three months learning together from Ephesians 6, last Sunday we have concluded our sermon series, Awakened Soldiers of Christ. Through that journey, I hope we all have learned how to stand firm in spiritual warfare equipped with the full armor of God. But standing firm is not the final goal; God has not called us merely to survive spiritual battles. We are called to be His disciples—to follow Jesus faithfully, to grow in Him, to become like Him, to live according to His purposes, and to make disciples.

This brings us to our next series for the month of November: An Awakened Discipling Church.

Who is a disciple, and what does it truly mean to make disciples? As an awakened discipling church, we seek to intentionally cultivate a disciple-making culture where every believer is nurtured in faith, equipped for ministry, and empowered to live out this calling—multiplying faithful disciples of Jesus Christ from one generation to the next.

Jesus' Great Commission is not simply a call to share the good news and make believers. Instead, Jesus commissioned us to go to all nations and make disciples, baptizing them and teaching them to obey everything He commanded—transformed by the Word of God and sent out to share the Gospel in the power and promise of the Lord.

We give thanks that through faithful discipling in the past, God has multiplied many cell leaders, Sunday service ministers, musicians and dancers, prayer warriors, preachers, visitation teams, and our tech team. Even now, we must not stop producing disciples across all our ministries. As we press forward, we will continue to see new life and a new generation of leaders and ministry servers being raised up.

Let us prepare our hearts to listen to the call of the Lord through this sermon series. The Lord, who is always with us, is still calling us—the church of today—to be His disciples and to go and make disciples for Him.
