Rector writes...

Kaamatan and Gawai Festivals

After this I looked, and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands. And they cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

(Revelation 7:9-10)

As we celebrate Kaamatan and Gawai Festivals, we are reminded of the beauty and diversity of God's creation. These festivals celebrate the harvest and the heritage of the peoples of Sabah and Sarawak, and they are a time for thanksgiving and joy.

In Revelation, we catch a glimpse of heaven where every nation, tribe, people, and language stand together before the Lord. It is a vision of unity - a tapestry woven from countless people groups worshipping the Lord Jesus Christ - the Lamb of God on the throne. The palm branches, the white robes, and the loud praises tell us that our identities are cherished and transformed in God's presence.

As we step out in faith on mission this year, we are also reaching out to six countries filled with vibrant and diverse peoples and cultures. We are committed to sharing the love and hope found in Jesus Christ, so that many more may come to know Him and stand with us before the throne in unity.

Our heartfelt thanks also to everyone for giving generously towards the mission fund. By your faithful support, we have reached RM70,437.30. As we enter the final week of mission giving, we hope to meet our minimum goal of RM80,000, with our sights set on the overall target of RM100,000. Thank you for partnering with us in this important work and for your continued prayers and contributions.

Let us work together to welcome all people, tribes, and nations to join in God's great celebration of love and salvation. I wish all our members celebrating Kaamatan dan Gawai Festivals – Kotobian Tadau Tagazo Do Kaamatan and Selamat Ari Gawai, Gayu Guru Gerri Nyamai.
